

Technical Competencies and Member Skills

Wide Ranging Skill Sets

Together the Alliance Partner companies cover an extensive range of skills, providing a full Technical Service provision for Sea, Land, Air, and Communications domains plus a limited Nuclear capability.

Included within these skill sets are a full range of Technical Services such as:

- Technical Analysis
An extensive capability to undertake technical tasks such as; Hazard Analysis; FMECAs; Risk Management plans, etc.
- Safety Management
Specialist staff able to provide Safety Analysis, drafting of Safety Cases; etc, or act as Independent Safety Advisors, Assessors or Auditors.
- Software Services
The capability to develop, assess and test all types and levels of software systems, including Flight Control & Safety Critical Systems.
- Assistance to the Procurement Processes
Programme planning, Bid support and assessment, ITEA planning, production of Business Cases.
- Independent Assessment
The ability to provide a demonstrably independent assessment of a wide range of technical systems and processes. This would include independent assessment for safety, capability or sub-system integration.
- Logistics
A comprehensive Logistics and Logistic Systems capability including all aspects of ILS, Sustainability Modelling and Supply Management.
- Project Assurance
Advice, review and independent assessment of project maturity and progress
- Advice & Studies
The professionalism and independence to carry out studies and investigations on almost any subject, then provide a detailed analysis and clear advice.
- Manpower Support
Provision of resource in a wide range of skills and specialisations.
- Systems Testing
The ability to design & undertake all manner of test programmes.
- Training
A full capability for training, covering Technical, Professional and Personal Development Training.

Defence Programmes

Alliance Members have been involved with a wide range of clients such as:

- MOD IPTs
- Prime Contractors
- Industrial Partners

On a wide range of programmes including:

- Harrier
- Astute
- Watchkeeper
- C4I Datalinks

To find out more

Call Rick Hussey or Don Bishop on 01235 202505 or visit www.alliance.co.uk